Alanson Partridge b. 2-19-1767

The record that I have sent to me some time ago by one who had spent much time on this family.

Alanson Partridge b. Feb. 18, 1767

Please look at your dates carefully-

Alanson Partridge b. 2-19-1769

Rev. Lemuel Partridge b. 2-3-1793

Alanson could hardly be the son of Rev. Lemuel.
Rev. Lemuel was the son of Alanson

Alanson was the son of James Partridge

See children of Alanson as you sent record to me-

Maynard Partridge born Feb. 3, 1793

Cemetery record-

Rev. Lemuel Partridge born 2-3-1793

Maynard son of Alanson and Rev. Lemuel are one and the same are they not-

The full name being Rev. Lemuel Maynard Partridge

I feel quite sure that this is your line-

 m. Elizabeth

Estate administered in Berne, Albany Co., N.Y. 1813,
 res. Scaghticoke, N.Y.

ch. Chollet b. abt. 1786")

We have been unable to find record where he was ever at Scaghticoke but he probably was .It is not far from Albany. He had relatives in various places around Albany. Some we have been able to trace and some I suppose only stayed but a short time in their migration westward- However from various sources a worker has pretty well established James line- Bible records-Census records-Court records-family records. so that it is fairly accurate.

PARTRIDGE/STEVENS

Gen. 6 James Partridge - did not find his birth in the Duxbury VR
(see enclosure # 1)
birth not in the Barbour Collection here marriage: "Thankfull Steavens of Stonington m. James Partridge, late of Dixborough, now of Lebanon, Dec. 24, 1744"
-Lebanon, Conn. VR, Vol. I, p.250 (Barbour Coll. on microfilm in Library NY G&B)
(So I researched in Lebanon. "Early Lebanon," Rev. O.D.Hine, publ.
1880, p.166: "Partridge - Births on record as follows: Joseph William, Feb. 10, 1759; Benjn. March 30, 1761; Annie Rhumama, Sept.
11, 1766; Guido Sussignanus, Apl. 1769. [No parents named] ")
(Square brackets indicate parentheses in original) died: "James Partridge d. 4 June 1771"
-Canaan, Ct., VR Vol. A., p.17 (your xerox rather faint; 1769 typed; 1771 in pencil?)
wife: I would think important to look for her father's will; very often wills mention grandchildren did not find any record of her death in Duxbury VR, unless she was under another 2nd marriage name.

Gen. 7 James Partridge -- born Duxbury - see attached enclosure # 1; sew below# marriage: not in Duxbury VR not Stonington VR; however, it might be in Conn. Church records - not available here - and they would be worth a search wife: Elizabeth Stevens: "d. Henry Jr." b. 10 March 1743 ("Stephens")
-Stonington VR, Vol. 3, p.32*
Henry Stephens, m Sarah Babcock 10 Nov. 1731 by Daniel Palmer
-Stonington VR Vol. 3, p.32*
(No ref. to Alanson in Babcock genealogies I saw)
Henry s. Henry Jr. b. 2 Jan. 1747/8
Stonington VR, Vol. 3, p.32*
* no doubt, same family.
Henry Stephens s. Henry & Elizabeth b. 18 Dec. 1709
-Plainfield VR Vol. 1, p.9
his wife's name could explain Elizabeth S Partridge's.
Seems to me to be important to look into all these wills.
Conn. wills are available in Hartford State Library

("[Stevens] Alanson Braman s [Samuel & Elizabeth] b ---- "
-Glastonbury VR Vol. 2, p.197

NOTE → This reference to "Alanson" indicates it may have come in to the family through the Stevens connections.)
